

Mike Tasker has a wide range of business development experience including an extensive history of working for 3M across the full spectrum of their division and global subsidiary network to plan and implement global programs ensuring brand integrity, supporting business and market intelligence efforts, protecting the global brand. He specialized in working with emerging market businesses and countries to insure adherence to all regulatory policies and procedures. He also had 10 years of experience integrating acquisitions into their global structure."

Mike left 3M as part of a business unit spinout and formed a new company as a minority partner, after exiting that business Mike has been a business consultant for Kenmare Capital, Global Winning Strategies, American Gold Shield, NJ DARE, US Strong, and various other companies. Mike currently resides in Texas.